GENERAL SECRETARIAT

No. L. 1778—L. B. 65-33-2, dated 7th September 1933.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 204 (1) of the Town Municipalities Regulation, 1918, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to issue the following rules for regulating cattle shows and fairs in Municipal limits.

1. All cattle shows and fairs in the Municipalities shall be organised and controlled by the Municipal Council concerned through a Committee appointed for the purpose. The Committee shall lay down the programme of shows and the general lines of organisation for the year; provided that where such show or fair is held in connection with a Muzrai Institution, such show or fair shall be held only on the motion of the District Muzrai Officer and with the previous sanction of the Muzrai Commissioner.

Every Committee shall consist of the Amildar of the Taluk as Chairman, a Veterinary Officer and, where the cattle show or fair is in connection with a Muzrai Institution, two representatives of such institution appointed in consultation with the Deputy Commissioner of the District and of such other official and non-official gentlemen as are, in the opinion of the Municipal Council, specially fitted to organise and regulate the conduct of such show or fair. The Municipal Council shall also appoint a person to be present on the show grounds during the whole period of the show or fair and to see that these rules are efficiently carried out.

2. At least one month prior to every show or fair, a short notice of such show or fair shall be published in English and Kannada in the Mysore Gazette by the President of the Municipal Council in accordance with the programme prepared under Rule 1.

3. The President of the Municipal Council shall, on the recommendation of a Veterinary Officer or on other information and for reasons to be recorded by him, be competent to prohibit the holding of a show or fair on account of the prevalence of cattle diseases in the locality or to require the closing of a show or fair when cattle diseases appear on the show or fair grounds. In cases of emergency, it shall be within the competence of the Chairman of the Committee, in the absence of the President, to order the closing of the show or fair.

4. To every show or fair ground shall be attached a segregation plot of suitable dimensions, properly fenced off or otherwise demarcated and protected for the segregation of diseased cattle; and, if so recommended by the Assistant Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, another such enclosure shall be provided for quarantining cattle from infected areas. Proper hospital accommodation shall also be provided for the officers of the Civil Veterinary Department present at the show or fair, who shall make adequate arrangements for the observation and treatment of affected cattle. The cost of such accommodation and enclosures, including that of watch and ward, shall be borne by the Municipal Council concerned.

5. All the expenses connected with the show or fair, including the cost of prizes and of sanitary and other arrangements, shall be met out of Municipal Funds.

6. Private subscriptions, if any, and fees levied on cattle admitted to the show or fair and all other realisations connected with the cattle show or fair shall be credited to the Municipal Funds, provided that, in cases where a show or fair is being held in connection with a Muzrai Institution and where such Muzrai Institution has been deriving income from such show or fair, the Municipal Council shall pay to such Muzrai Institution a sum equal to 60 per cent of the gross realisations subject to the following conditions:—

(a) If the show or fair is prohibited from being held under Rule 3 in any year, no amount shall be payable to the Muzrai Institution in that year.

(b) Where a show or fair has been closed under Rule 3 before the full usual period, there shall be a proportionate reduction in the amount payable to the Muzrai Institution.

(c) The 60 per cent of gross realisations to be paid to the Muzrai Institution fixed in this rule is tentative and subject to revision, if necessary, at the end of three years.

7. (a) The Municipal Council may levy fees on cattle brought to the show or fair subject to a maximum of eight annas per head.

(b) The Municipal Council may levy such entrance fees as they think proper for animals admitted to competition for prizes.

(c) The fees fixed under this rule should be published a week prior to the date of the show or fair and notified in prominent places on the show or fair grounds, and at the cookds where fees are collected.

8. Within one month after the holding of the show or fair, a full report of it shall be forwarded by the Chairman of the Committee to the President of the Municipal Council and to the Deputy Commissioner of the District.

No. L. 1779—L. B. 65-33-3, dated 7th September 1933.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 100 of the Mysore District Boards' Regulation, 1926, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to issue the following rules for regulating cattle shows and fairs under the control of District Boards in supersession of those issued with Government Order No. L. 5568-86—L. B. 64-24-59, dated the 14th March 1928:—

1. All cattle shows and fairs within the limits of each District Board shall be organised and controlled by the District Board. The District Board shall lay down the programme of shows and the general lines of organisation for the year, provided that where a show or fair is held in connection with a Muzrai Institution such show or fair shall be held only on the motion of the District Muzrai Officer, and with the previous sanction of the Muzrai Commissioner.

For each show or fair, the District Board shall appoint a special committee consisting of the Amildar of the Taluk as Chairman, a Veterinary Officer and, where the show or fair is in connection with a Muzrai Institution, two representatives of such institution appointed in consultation with the Deputy Commissioner of the District and of such other official and non-official gentlemen as are, in the opinion of the District Board, specially fitted to organise and regulate the conduct of such show or fair. The Special Committee shall also appoint a person to be present on the show grounds during the whole period of the show or fair and to see that these rules are efficiently carried out.

2. At least one month prior to every show or fair, a short notice of such show or fair shall be published in English and Kannada in the Mysore Gazette, by the President of the District Board in accordance with the programme prepared under Rule 1.

3. The President of the District Board, will on the recommendation of a Veterinary Officer or on other information and for reasons to be recorded by him, be competent to prohibit the holding of a show or fair on account of the prevalence of cattle diseases in the locality or to require the closing of a show or fair when cattle diseases appear on the show or fair grounds. In cases of emergency, it shall be within the competence of the Chairman of the Committee, in the absence of the President, to order the closing of the show or fair.

4. To every show or fair ground shall be attached a segregation plot of suitable dimensions properly fenced off or otherwise demarcated and protected for the segregation of diseased cattle: and, if so recommended by the Assistant Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, another such enclosure shall be provided for quarantining cattle coming from infected areas. Proper hospital accommodation shall also be provided for the officers of the Civil Veterinary Department present at the show or fair, who shall make adequate arrangements for the observation and treatment of affected cattle. The cost of such accommodation and enclosures including that of watch and ward shall be borne by the District Board.

5. All the expenses connected with the show or fair including the cost of prizes, and of sanitary and other arrangements shall be met out of District Funds.

6. Private subscriptions, if any, and fees levied on cattle admitted to the show or fair and all other realisations connected with the cattle show or fair shall be credited to the District Board Funds provided that in cases where a show or fair is being held in connection with a Muzrai Institution and where such Muzrai Institution has been deriving income from such show or fair, the District Board shall pay to such Muzrai Institution a sum equal to 60 per cent of the gross realisation subject to the following conditions:—

(a) If the show or fair is prohibited from being held under Rule 3 in any year, no amount shall be payable to the Muzari Institution in that year.

(b) Where a show or fair has been closed under Rule 3 before the full usual period, there shall be a proportionate reduction in the amount payable to the Muzrai Institution.

(c) The 60 per cent of gross realisations to be paid to the Muzrai Institution, fixed in this rule is tentative and subject to revision, if necessary, at the end of three years.

7. (a) The District Board may levy fees on cattle brought to the show or fair, subject to a maximum of eight annas per head.

(b) The District Board may levy such entrance fees as they think proper for animals admitted to competition for prizes.

(c) The fees fixed under this rule should be published a week prior to the date of the show or fair and notified in prominent places on the show or fair grounds, and at the Ookads where fees are collected.

8. Within one month after the holding of the show or fair, a full report of it shall be forwarded by the Chairman of the Committee to the President of the District Board and to the Deputy Commissioner of the District.

No. L. 1777—L. B. 65-33-1, dated 7th September 1933.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 106 (1) of the Minor Municipalities Regulation, 1933, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to issue the following rules for regulating cattle shows and fairs in Municipal limits.
